

Alfred Jones, Jr. – Mr. Jones is the Executive Director of the Centre County Community Foundation. A member of the Foundation board, Mr. Jones accepted the position of CEO on April 1, 2009. Mr. Jones had been a practicing attorney for thirty-seven years in State College, Pennsylvania. He remains of counsel to the State College law firm of Delafield, McGee, Jones & Kauffman, P.C. He has served as a board member of the Centre County Community Foundation, Centre County United Way, the Community Help Centre of State College, Lawyers Concerned for Lawyers of Pennsylvania, Inc., the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Centre County Bar Association, as well as its past President. He is presently President of the Pennsylvania Bar Foundation and a member of the Professional Liability Committee, the Lawyers Assistance Committee and the Charitable Organizations Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. In 2011, the Conference of County Bar Leaders honored him with its Gilbert Nurick Award for dedication and commitment to the Pennsylvania and Centre County Bar Associations.

Mr. Jones is a 1965 graduate of Dickinson College and a 1970 graduate of the Duquesne University School of Law