

Grace R. Schuyler, Esquire was elected to the Pennsylvania Bar Foundation Board of Directors in May of 2010.

Ms. Schuyler is the Director of Government Affairs for RiteAid, Corp., in Camp Hill, Pennsylvania. She is active in the Pennsylvania Bar Association and is currently serving a third term as the Chairperson of the Law Related Education Committee. She is a Life Fellow in the Pennsylvania Bar Foundation. In 2009, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania appointed her to the Board of Directors for the Pennsylvania Lawyers Client Security Fund.

Ms. Schuyler was previously employed as Senior Counsel for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Health. In addition to handling litigation for the department, she served as Program Attorney for the Office of Public Health Preparedness, the Bureau of Epidemiology, the Bureau of Community Health Systems and Drug and Alcohol Program Licensure. She has conducted state and federal training on preparedness issues and public health laws and was a member of the Editorial Board for the Pennsylvania Public Health Law Bench Book.

She remains involved in public health projects and was selected to serve on the Joint State Government Commission's Advisory Committee for Senate Resolution 194 to review and provide recommendations on Pennsylvania's public health laws. Ms. Schuyler was a member of the advisory group that developed a public health law judicial program for common pleas trial judges and participated in the initial session presented in June, 2009 in State College, Pennsylvania.

Her background includes extensive experience in insurance defense litigation. She served as the Managing Attorney and Senior Trial Counsel for two insurance companies. She was employed as Litigation Counsel – Major Claims in the (U.S.) Home Office of an international insurance company.

Ms. Schuyler is a graduate of Shippensburg University, Shippensburg, Pennsylvania, PA and the Penn State – Dickinson School of Law, Carlisle, Pennsylvania.